Civil Action No. 12 0181

for the past seven years.” Compl. at 1. Allegedly the defendant is responsible for “having [her] medical record switched with that of [her] deceased brother,” id., “stalk[ing her] on private airplanes and helicopters,” and “getting funds to disappear from [her] bank account.” Id. at 2. In addition, the defendant allegedly “has made numerous attempts to make [her] gain a criminal record and ha[s] arranged [for] a [S]ecret [S]ervice officer to illegally arrest and detain [her].” Id. Plaintiff alleges additional violations of her human and civil rights, but demands no particular relief.

The court is mindful that complaints filed by pro se litigants are held to less stringent standards than those applied to formal pleadings drafted by lawyers. See Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 520 (1972). Having reviewed plaintiff’s complaint, the court concludes that its factual contentions are baseless and wholly incredible. For this reason, the complaint is frivolous and must be dismissed. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i).

An Order consistent with this Memorandum Opinion is issued separately.
